HAYDN ---- 'THE SEASONS'

This a new venture by the club, which we hope will be an enjoyable, relaxed form of music making. During the afternoon we shall rehearse selected parts of Haydn's last oratorio, and then, at 5-30, put together an abridged 'performance'. We hope it will draw many members and their friends along to take part. Please do not feel that this is only for accomplished singers (although we should like some of them for the solos). It is for all. If you have any questions, please ring either Livia Gollancz (348 3362) or Colin Myles (the conductor - 446 0254), or Edmund Booth (the orchestral coordinator - 802 0400).

There is to be a preliminary rehearsal for singers on June 29th. in the Heath St. Baptist Church, which is a few hundred yards up the road from Hampstead Tube station. This will be at 6-45, and it will be a chance to find out what we are doing, and to collect a copy of the music. Do come.

Thursday 5th. July 1984

Another club social event of great importance this year is the dinner to be held in the JOHN ADAMS HALL, which is a student residence for the University of London Institute of Education. It is in Endsleigh Street, near to University College, and two minutes walk from Euston station.

BERNARD ROBINSON, well known to many of us, has kindly agreed to speak to us after dinner, on Amateur Music.

The cost of the dinner will be £9-50, completely inclusive - even wine. For the extra thirsty, however, there will also be a cash wine bar.

We hope that you will be able to come - if so, please complete the slip below and send it to me as soon as possible, in order that I may assess the numbers; in any event I need to know by June 21st.. Invitations with full details will be sent on receipt of your cheque. There will be a seating plan, so please indicate the names of people who may be coming with you, and say if there are any people near to whom you would like to sit.

We look forward to seeing you on July 5th..

John Elkan.
